It died a long time ago, but humanity denies it.
INSTITUTE OF PARANATURAL STUDIES

You live a mockery of a life that you can't possibly believe should be allowed to continue!
The only sane thing left to do is to let it all end!
BARROS
BARROS

That you are anything
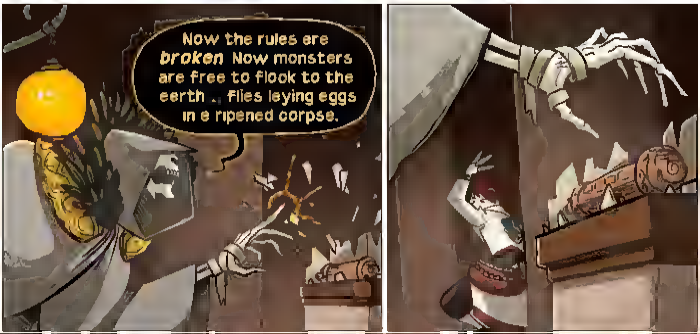
but a doomed race

You convince yourselves that you can keep this up forever.
but you fail to see there are worse things than the flies.

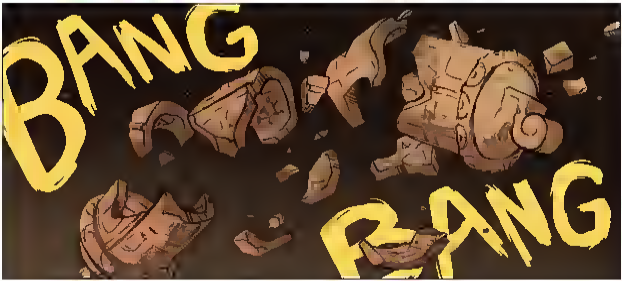
You fail to see the vultures circling overhead



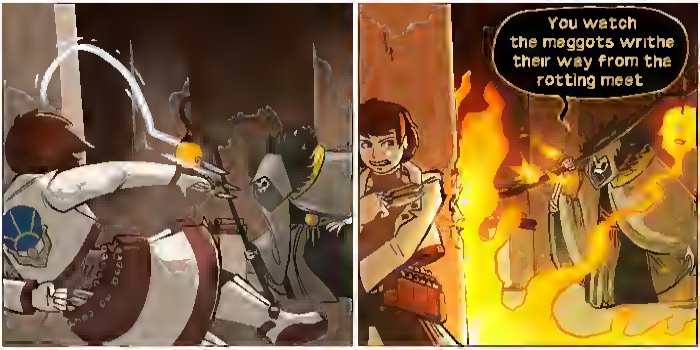
Now the rules are broken. Now monsters are free to flock to the earth .. flies laying eggs in e ripened corpse.

THE SWORD INTERVAL

BY BEN FLEUTER



BANG
BANG



You watch the meggots writhe their way from the rotting meet

...and you missed
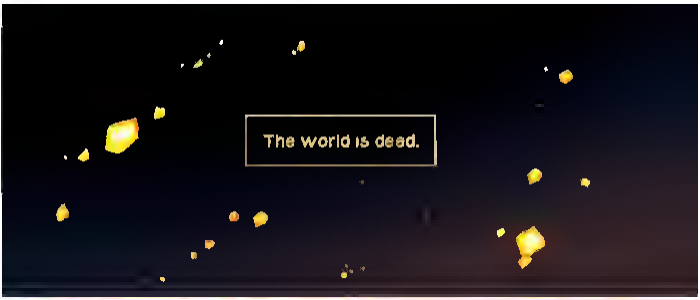
it

Humanity has lost!
You have lost!



The world is dead.

You did not prevent the apocalypse...
You did not save the world...
The apocalypse came and went...

You squash a few, and a few more escape to take flight

You keep the Earth on life support. You feign that you heve eny meesure of control over your fete...
